GUIDANCE NEWS

The end of the school year is upon us. It is often hard for students to remain focused until the very end. Parents, be your children's "cheerleaders" by encouraging them to come to school, complete their work at school and at home, and to do their best on the SOL tests. Help them get a good night's sleep by setting a bedtime (even though they are teenagers) without electronics. Eating something either before school or by mid-morning will help them focus on tasks as well. Teach them healthy habits for life.

Seniors: Congratulations to the graduates!

College bound?? Let Mrs. White in guidance know what college you are going to attend so she can put your name on the window and send your final transcript to the school.

Let Ms. Hoffman in guidance know if you have received any scholarship monies.

Employment bound?? Get a good résumé together to submit to potential employers. Search for jobs through employment ads, the VA Employment Commission or any other organizations. Practice interviewing skills with another person before the Interview.

Juniors: GET READY for SENIOR year!

College bound?? Take the SAT or ACT if going to a 4 year school immediately from high school

Visit campuses if possible and begin narrowing your choice of schools to apply to in the fall.

Start looking for scholarships.

Sophomores and Freshman: Senior Year is right around the corner.

Continue to do your very best in school. Your senior year will be here before you know it. Keep your GPA as high as you can and your attendance as close to perfect as you can.

Consider volunteering this summer and joining a club or sport next year if you are not already involved in one. Start building those leadership skills for work, college and Scholarships.

EVERYONE - Have a safe and enjoyable summer break!!

SOL Testing will begin May 21st and end on May 31st .
